THREATENED TO KILL THE AGENT

Mrs. Belle Marlin of Rensselaer, Who is Held in Jail, Caused Tumult at Station.

APPLIED TO TRUSTEE FOR HELP

Accused J. M. Higgins of Murdering Her Children—Divorced From Her Husband Recently.

"He was a mean, mean man," "He killed my children," and "I would like to know what he did with my children," is all that Mrs. Belle Marlin of Rensselaer, who is confined in the county jail, will say. She occasionally has a sane moment and tells something of her past history, enough she told so that Sheriff Clata Bebout called her relatives at Rensselaer and they have promised to come here after her. She threatened to kill J. M. Higgins, agent at the Pennsylvania depot and for that reason she was lodged in jail.

Mrs. Marlin made her debut in Rushville this morning when she applied at the township trustee's office for assistance. She said that her home was in Rensselaer and that she was on her way to Georgetown, Ky. When she asked for help of the trustee, she seemed perfectly sane and rational and knew all about herself. The trustee complied with her wish and told her that he would pay her way to Columbus. When she arrived at the station, the woman had gone insane and was threatening to kill the agent. The sheriff was called and she was taken to jail.

Mrs. Marlin, when she arrived at the station and found that the train had gone, suddenly became violently insane. She said that Agent Higgins had killed her children. She pointed back of the office and said that she saw him make away with them just as she came in. After she had railed for a time about the murder of her children, she threatened to kill the agent and he feared that she might carry out her threat. Just then the trustee arrived and telephoned the sheriff, who placed the woman in a cell.

After she was placed in jail she refused to talk about anything except the murder of her children. About noon she seemed to have a few sane minutes and Sheriff Bebout asked where he could find her children. Previous to that he had called the police at Rensselaer and they knew nothing of her. She told him to call Deless Thompson. The sheriff called him and learned that he is the cashier of the State bank there and that his mother had been the Sunday school teacher of Mrs. Marlin's children. He told her relatives and they called the sheriff.

It has since developed that Mrs. Marlin was recently divorced from her husband, Stephen Marlin and that he had the custody of the children. She left Rensselaer for the home of her father, A. L. Williams, at Georgetown, Ky. Th relatives said that they feared that she would go insane when she left home. They promised that they would attempt to get her husband to come here after her.

Mrs. Marlin is a very plain looking woman of about forty years. She is not attractive looking by any means and wears very plain, cheap, but clean clothes. She wears her hair parted in the middle and smoothed closely back over her head and her face has a worn and haggard look. She carried a black pocketbook which contained several small articles, including a Catholic prayer-book, eighty-five cents in money, a card as a credential that she was a newspaper correspondent for the Northern Press Association, a book on the disease of dogs and a few other small articles. She seemed sane for a time this afternoon and then would again lapse into partial insanity.

SECRET MARRIAGE REPORT INCORRECT

Story Concerning Miss Hazel Bennett and Charles Jones Believed to be Work of Enemy.

WOULD RESORT TO ANY MEANS

The report that Miss Hazel Bennett and Charles Jones were secretly married two months ago, as published yesterday, was incorrect. The message was received at this office and was supposed to have been sent by Miss Bennett. The girl or woman who telephoned said that she was Miss Bennett and that she wished to make public her marriage. The act was that of an enemy of the young couple and was a dastardly trick.

A newspaper is largely dependent upon people for its news. It must generally receive news second-hand, so to speak, and the person or persons who would take advantage of the situation to ruin the character or reputation of an enemy, would resort to most any means. Miss Bennett is at a loss to explain the reason for anyone doing such a thing as she does not think she has an enemy who would stoop to such a trick.

CAUGHT YOUTH ENTERING HOUSE

Ralph Lee, Who Was Wanted For Shooting Edinburg Officer, is Arrested in South Bend.

GAVE AWAY HIS OWN IDENTITY

Probable he Would Never Have Been Located, Had he Not Said he Was Wanted Elsewhere.

Ralph Lee, the seventeen-year-old youth, who was accused of shooting and seriously wounding William Goodin, brother of Ben Goodin of this city, and night marshal of Edinburg, early last Thursday morning, was captured while attempting to enter a house in South Bend last night, according to reports received here this afternoon. It is very probable that young Lee would have been fined or given a prison sentence for the attempted burglary and the other case against him would never have been known, had he kept quiet. Instead he gave his past career away when he said that he was wanted at Edinburg for a more serious crime than that for which they held him. The Edinburg police went to South Bend last night and returned with their prisoner today.

The officers had given up all hopes of ever locating and bringing to justice the man who attempted to kill the night marshal. They learned soon after the attempted murder that young Lee was the man who had done the shooting from the fact that he left a box from the express office with his name on it, when the buggy in which he was making his escape, broke down.

The police were hot on the trail when they lost all sight of the youthful criminal. They traced him into a woods and thought that they could arrest him there, but he escaped them. It was later reported that he was hiding in a cave in the Brown county hills, but they were unsuccessful again. The police were informed that a horse and saddle were missing from the neighborhood of Nineveh and it is supposed that he made good his escape in that manner.

The authorities of Edinburg had given up the hunt altogether and believed that they never would capture the would-be slayer, when like a ray of sunshine out of a clouded sky, they received word last night that the boy, who had attempted to kill the night marshal at Edinburg was in jail at South Bend.

The details of his capture at South Bend are very meagre other than that he was caught by the police while he was attempting to burglarize a house in that city. It is very probable that he would never have been forced to face the charge of attempted murder had he kept his past history a secret.

It will be remembered that young Lee shot Goodin in the back with a shot gun when the night marshal attempted to arrest him on suspicion for robbing a hardware store there. Goodin, it is reported, will probably recover from the wounds which he received. Ben Goodin was down to see him Sunday and says that he was resting much easier than he has been since the accident.

He will not take charge of the office until Friday, July 1st. Mr. Moffett has not definitely decided what he will do after he retires. Deputy Postmaster McNaughton will continue in that position for several months.

LARGE CROWD BREAKS RECORD

This Was the Most Successful "Big Wednesday" Yet Held in the Series of Feature Days.

MERCHANTS WELL PLEASED

Newsboys Band and Throwing of Goods From Store Tops Were Big Attractions.

Of all the three "Big Wednesdays" planned by the merchants of Rushville this one was the most successful, most interesting and the largest. One of the most pleasing features of the day was the excellent music furnished by the Indianapolis Newsboys' band. The band arrived on their special car at 9:10 this morning and from that time on through the morning and almost all afternoon gave a continuous concert from the bandstand erected on the northwest corner of the court house lawn. Their program was well arranged and was very versatile, being made up of the latest popular hits, classical productions and national airs.

The crowd in attendance was the largest ever here for the feature day. Many came in on the traction line, railway trains, and the buggies lined along the streets near the livery stables reminded local people of the day when Barnum & Bailey's circus showed here.

Practically every merchant and dealer in the city had bargains to offer in one or more of the lines that they carry. Their generosity caused one of the most interesting and attractive features of the day: that of throwing clothing, orders good for articles of commodity, accessories and luxuries from the roofs of the business blocks occupied by the several business firms, who entered the agreement. It was a picture which is far from accurate description to watch the multitude pass from one business block to the next. Little tots with their usual greed and endurance, the court house pump aggregation, the ever "get something for nothing" women, the men who enjoy amusement of this character, comprised the main part of the seeking crowd, who indulged in the novelty.

The moving picture shows offered good programs for the afternoon matinees given for those who had secured tickets through their purchases at the various places of business. The D. A. R. rest room was the place of refuge for a large number of tired and weary shoppers and spectators. Tonight the local band will give a concert on the court house lawn.

There will be five more "Big Wednesdays," this being the first of a series of six which over seventy local merchants have agreed to support. All of the merchants who entered into the agreement have expressed themselves as much pleased with the success of the venture.

Shelbyville Will Have Big Time on National Holiday.

That Shelbyville will celebrate the glorious Fourth in a glorious manner is certain from the manner in which they are advertising the day. Hoagland's big hippodrome will be the chief attraction. Races of all descriptions are on the program and band concerts will be heard most of the day.

FISH MEN DETOUR; FINALLY GO SOUTH

Commissioners, Who Are Working Here "Secretly" Had Another
"Hot Tip" This Morning.

A "WATER HAUL" YESTERDAY

Fish and Game Commissioners Wolf and Gallion made a "water haul" yesterday and it is very probable that they will return with the same report to make to their chief tonight. They drove south this morning with a "hot tip" that they could find some fish and game violators in that direction, but up until late this afternoon they had failed to produce the goods. They planned to work secretly, but their actions are generally public property. This morning they hired a horse and buggy at Davis Brothers livery barn and drove north. They made several "passes" around the court house square and finally started south toward Milroy. Yesterday they failed to make the catch which they believed they had located.

"Big Wednesday" crowds were too much for the nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gahimer, and she was lost from her mother this afternoon for nearly an hour. She was picked up by Policeman Wolters, but refused to go with him for fear that she would be taken to jail. Mrs. Gahimer was found later and the child was restored to her.

PREFERS FARM TO MINISTRY

Gwynneville Residents Receive Letters from the Rev. S. M. Hawthorne, Former Pastor.

WHO DISAPPEARED RECENTLY

Minister is Working as Day Laborer in Country, Near Carlisle, Minn.
Sensation at Time.

Word has been received by a number of Gwynneville people that the Rev. S. M. Hawthorne, the former pastor of the Christian church there, who suddenly and mysteriously disappeared recently, is working as a farm hand near Carlisle, Minnesota. It is said that several persons, including the wife of the minister, received a letter from him a few days ago to that effect.

The mystery of the sudden departure has never been solved, although there is rumor of a scandal which is not given much credence. Homer Cole of this city, who has been engaged as a singing evangelist for the past few years, is well acquainted with the Rev. Mr. Hawthorne and says that he can not explain for his strange action. He says he has been in revival meetings with him and was largely instrumental in obtaining the pastorate at Gwynneville for the departed minister.

The Shelbyville Democrat adds the following chapter to the story of the receipt of letters concerning his present location.

The exact information the minister imparted in his letters could not be ascertained, but is stated that he said he would never return to Gwynneville. Albert Ernest, one of the members of his congregation, received a letter a few days after Rev. Hawthorne disappeared, but the contents of the epistle have never been made public, notwithstanding the fact that such was said to have been the request of the minister. The reason for not reading the letter in public is said to be on account of the fact that the names of several prominent women in Gwynneville are mentioned and the interested parties feel that it would be nothing less than foolhardy to carry Rev. Hawthorne's request into effect.

In the letters received Monday, Rev. Hawthorne is said to have stated that his conscience did not bother him and that he did not believe he had been guilty of any wrong doing. A resident of the town stated today that the letter received by his wife contained among other things the statement, "If you think I have been guilty of any wrong doing and think that I deserve punishment, I will come as soon as you send for me."

While the disappearance of the minister created a big sensation at the time things have simmered down until other matters have placed the scandal in the background. The pulpit at the Christian church, which was filled by Rev. Hawthorne is being occupied by a minister from Irvington while the plans for the erection of the new church are being carried out as originally planned.

BEVERLY AGAIN IN LIMELIGHT

The Summer Capital Re-established There Today.

MR. TAFT IN FINE SPIRITS

Happy and Contented Over His Last Seven Months' Work at the National Capital, the President Arrives at His Summer Home With the Expectation of Enjoying a Season of Perfect Rest From Official Duties.

Beverly, Mass., June 29.—President Taft, with a large part of the White House force, arrived here this morning and Beverly is again the summer capital. The president arrived in excellent spirits. He is pretty well tired out after the long pull that congress gave him, but it was plain to everyone who had a word with him that he is very happy and contented over his last seven months' work at the national capital.

There was one thing, however, that interested Mr. Taft more than did the long string of visitors who called to pay their respects and wish him a pleasant summer. Several times in the course of the day Mr. Taft interrupted the steady stream of callers to send out for the latest news on the condition of Thithwoola, the man who was run down here Monday by one of the White House autos driven by Robert Taft. He openly expressed his anxiety over the incident, and was greatly relieved to know that the man would likely recover.

Mrs. Taft and the others of the family have been here for several days. The executive offices will be in the same building as last summer, and they have been put in order for Secretary Norton and his force. Mr. Taft also brought with him Dr. Charles Barker, his physical adviser. Dr. Barker has been credited with teaching Mr. Taft a thing or two about sparring and also about wrestling, but details of athletic events at the White House have been more meager than they once were.

For the first two weeks Mr. Taft expects to be reasonably free from callers. He intends to spend his time with his family and on the golf links and to enjoy a season of perfect rest from official duties. Even after the two weeks have passed he will try to have a quiet summer as free as possible from politics. If it can be avoided there will be no daily receptions of visiting politicians, such as usually characterize life at the White House. However, Mr. Taft has started out before with good intentions on this score, but found himself pulled into many political situations before the summer was over.

Gifford Pinchot Says He Will Continue the Fight.

Independent voters in Pennsylvania have started a movement to run Gifford Pinchot for governor. Pinchot's home is in Milford, that state.

GOVERNOR DICKERSON WILL NOT INTERFERE

Protests Against Big Fight Have No Weight.

Reno, Nev., June 29.—Governor E. S. Dickerson of Nevada entertains no prejudice against the impending fight between Jeff and Johnson, even though his intervention to stop the fight is being importuned by ministerial associations all over the country. Of this fact Promoters Rickard and Gleason were pretty definitely assured before they made their announcement a week ago that Reno was to be the scene of the fight, but when the governor, who had dropped into town from Ely, threw one arm over Tex Rickard's shoulder and whispered something in his ear that brought a smile on the Rickard countenance, all apprehensions vanished.

"As long as this fight is on the square I will take no steps to stop it," said the governor, after his talk with Rickard. "And believe me, this fight is going to be on the square. You can put me down for that."

Governor Dickerson was asked if he had received any protests against the holding of the fight in Reno or requests that he exercise his executive functions to stop it.

"Yes, I believe a good many such protests, most of them from clerical associations outside the state, have come in," he said. "But I have not yet been to my office since it was decided to pull the fight off in Reno, so, of course, I have not yet officially received any of these communications. I shall not pay any attention to them, anyway."

Somebody wanted to know if in his absence from the ringside on July 4 the governor would delegate the power to stop the fight in case any element of fake should appear, to the captain of police, the soldiers, or the head of the state police, who would be on the ground with his men to help keep order. "I will do nothing of the kind, because I know that there is no fake about it," he replied.

HIS FATE HUNG ON OVERSIGHT

York Once Forgot the Wrench for His Cork Leg.

AND THEREBY HANGS A TALE

Thaddeus E. York, Described by the Pinkertons as a Persistent Forger and Bank Robber, Was Traced to Seattle on the Meagerest Sort of a Clue—York Was Once a Clerk in the Offices of the State Republican Committee at Indianapolis.

Seattle, Wash., June 29.—Principally because he left behind him on his travels a peculiar kind of monkey wrench used to tighten up the plates of his artificial leg, Thaddeus E. York, described by the Pinkertons as a persistent forger, was caught here.

York, it is alleged, began a series of swindling operations in May, 1909, shortly after the office of the Northern Express company at Oakdale, Wash., had been robbed of money order blanks. Orders were cashed for varying amounts in Toledo, Cleveland, Ash-tabula, Buffalo, Erie and other cities. The swindler used the name of John W. Lee in operating with the money orders, and as he had a government passport made out to John W. Lee, he had no trouble in cashing them after he had forged the name of the Northern Express agent at Butte.

On May 19, 1909, using the name of N. N. Sutherland, he swindled the American Savings Bank and Trust company of Seattle out of $1,359 with two certificates of deposit which had been mailed to the real Sutherland, a railroad employe at Malta, Col. York, who was once a railroad man and telegraph operator, had managed in some way to steal Sutherland's mail. Then in Klamath Falls, Ore., he got away with $7,000 from the American Bank and Trust company, which called the Pinkertons to run him down. All the detectives had to start on besides a very general description, was that he walked with a limp.

The detectives found that a man answering in a general way to the one wanted had left a nickel-plated wrench at a hotel. They showed the wrench to an expert and learned that wrenches of that kind were made exclusively by a firm that manufactured artificial limbs. Putting this fact together with their description of a man who limped, the detectives decided that their man had an artificial leg. They next looked up the firm that made the wrenches and decided that the man who had robbed the Klamath Falls bank was Thaddeus E. York, who bought a leg in 1907, and gave his address as Reno. At Reno they found that York was a telegraph operator and had been employed on various roads in the northwest. They discovered that his mother lived in Los Angeles, and through her traced York to Chelan, Wash.

York had invested between $10,000 and $12,000 in a ranch 150 miles from Wenatchee, Wash., the nearest railroad point. He had a nephthia launch to carry the produce of his ranch down a river to the railroad, and had apparently retired from the pursuit of his profession. The detectives say he would have been perfectly safe if he had not left that artificial leg wrench behind him a thousand miles from the place where he was taken.

In the course of their chase they learned that York was a clerk of the Republican state committee in Indianapolis from 1890 to 1892. He was later a clerk in the postoffice in that city, but lost the job in a political overturn. He was employed on an Indianapolis paper as a solicitor. In 1902 he was in the employ of the C. & H. D. railway at Connersville, Ind., as a telegraph operator.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is no "cure-all" humbug, but is made for just one purpose—to cure the weaknesses, painful disorders and irregularities of the womanly organism. It is

THE ONE REMEDY for these ailments, sold by druggists, devised and gotten up by a regularly graduated physician of vast experience in treating woman's peculiar diseases and is carefully adapted to work in harmony with her delicate organization, by an experienced and skilled specialist in her maladies.

THE ONE REMEDY for woman's ailments, sold by druggists, which contains neither alcohol (which to most women is the rankest poison) or other injurious or habit-forming drugs.

THE ONE REMEDY for women, the composition of which is so perfect and good that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient, in plain English on its outside bottle-wrapper, and attest the correctness of the same under oath—thus taking its users into their full confidence, and warranting physicians in prescribing it in their worst cases, which they do very largely.

It is foolish as well as dangerous to take medicine the composition of which you know nothing. Therefore, don't let a dishonest druggist prevail on you to accept a secret nostrum for this professionally approved medicine of KNOWN COMPOSITION. Every ingredient in its make-up has the strongest indorsement of the leading medical men of all the several schools of practice. Send postal card request for free Booklet of same.

Every woman may write fully and confidentially to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and may be sure that her case will receive careful, conscientious, confidential consideration, and that the best medical advice in the world will be given to her, absolutely free.

In addition to this free advice, Dr. Pierce will send a fine French cloth-bound copy of his great 1000-page book, "The Common Sense Medical Adviser," to any woman who will send 31 one-cent stamps to pay the cost of mailing only.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. They work in harmony with "Favorite Prescription" when needed as a gentle laxative. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

BOTH ACCEPT INVITATIONS

President Taft and Col. Roosevelt at Ohio Valley Exposition.

OTHER NOTED MEN TO ATTEND

Governors of Various States and Mayors of Cities of the Ohio Valley Promise Support to the Enterprise and Express Their Intentions of Visiting Cincinnati During the Great Exposition.

Cincinnati, O. —(Special.)— While no foreign potentates or visitors of royal birth have as yet announced their intention of attending the Ohio Valley Exposition, which will be held here next fall, a sufficient number of acceptances to invitations have been received from noted men of America to make the absence of foreign notables felt not at all. One of the first promises to attend the Exposition from men of international reputation was received from President Taft, who, besides praising the objects for which the Exposition will be held, declared his intention of spending at least a week in Cincinnati during the time of the progress of the big industrial enterprise. Following the acceptance of President Taft came others from Governor Deneen, of Illinois; Governor Harmon, of Ohio; Governor Glasscock, of West Virginia; Governor Marshall, of Indiana; Governor Patterson, of Tennessee, and Governor Willson, of Kentucky. Later came assurances from all the mayors of the cities of the Ohio Valley, promising their support to the enterprise and expressing their intentions

SOUTH'S CORN EXHIBIT WILL CREATE FURORE

One of the Big Features of the Ohio Valley Exposition.

Cincinnati, O. —(Special.)— The general impression that the Middle West has a monopoly on the raising of corn promises to receive its quietus at the Ohio Valley Exposition, to be held in Cincinnati from Aug. 29 to Sept. 24. In assembling the industrial, products and resources which will make up the Southern exhibit at the Exposition, the representatives of the various railroads in the South are giving particular attention to securing examples of the South's natural wealth of which the outside world knows little or nothing. And working along this plan, special efforts are being made to secure a large and classy exhibit of corn grown in various sections of Dixie, with the idea of impressing visitors to the Exposition that the South will grow anything that any other section can produce, and in just as high quality. For some years the matter of experimenting with the growing of corn has been progressing in the South, with the result that experts now boldly announce that with proper application and the employment of up-to-date methods of cultivation, the South can be made the greatest corn-producing section of America. Reports from the Department of Agriculture in Washington give interesting figures on this experimental work. In South Carolina a boy, devoting all his time and knowledge to corn planting and cultivating, succeeded in raising 152½ bushels to the acre in a section where the average yield was but 16 bushels per acre. In Virginia nearly 1,000 acres were planted and cultivated under improved methods, with the result that an average

CLAIMS LAND AFTER 30 YEAR'S ABSENCE

Nellie Garry, Aged Daughter of Once Famous Chief of Indian Tribe Said She Leased Land.

INVESTIGATION WILL BE MADE

Spokane, Wash., June 29—Nellie Garry, an aged daughter of Garry, the once famous chieftain of the Spokane tribe, has laid claim to 160 acres of highly improved farm and orchard land in Bigelow Gulch, northeast of Spokane, occupied by J. T. Wilcox, a wealthy farmer. The woman claims she lived on the land more than 30 years ago, afterward leasing it to a white man for a period of 25 years. After paying a year's rent the settler said he had bought the land outright from Nellie's white husband, Joseph Wilson. C. C. Bigelow proved upon the claim in 1886 and sold the holding to Wilcox in 1889. Old settlers say that Chief Garry and his daughter never lived on the land in dispute. However, the old squaw has so far convinced the commissioner of Indian affairs as to cause an investigation. Wilcox has been summoned to appear before the land commissioner in Spokane to show cause why the original entry and certificate of the government should not be set aside. Wilcox will fight the case, as the land is worth fully $10,000.

EASY TO CURE

Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat and Catarrh.

Breathe Hyomei. It will cure catarrh or any nose or throat trouble if you follow directions. Don't lay it aside when the snuffling, hawking and spitting have ceased. Stick to it daily until you are sure that the catarrh germ is dead, and that your air passages are free from their poisonous influence. Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me) is the only treatment for nose, throat and lung troubles that has ever been sold with the understanding that if it did not cure, it was to cost absolutely nothing.

Hyomei can be obtained at druggists everywhere and at F. B. Johnson & Co. who guarantees it to cure catarrh, croup, sore throat, coughs and colds. A complete outfit $1.00, which is mighty cheap for a remedy that has cured more cases of catarrh than all the catarrh specialists on earth.

An outfit consists of an inhaler, a bottle of Hyomei, a supply of antiseptic gauze, a medicine dropper, and full instructions for use. The inhaler is made pocket size, of hard rubber, and will last a lifetime. And bear in mind that extra bottles of Hyomei, if needed, cost only 50 cents.

Eczema—A Germ Disease Can Now be Cured.

The Medical profession is all agreed that ECZEMA is a germ disease, but the thing that has baffled them is to find some remedy that will get to the ground and destroy them.

Zemo, the clean, external treatment has solved this difficulty by drawing the germs to the surface of the skin and destroying the germ life that causes the disease. The whole method of treatment and cure by ZEMO is explained in an interesting book on the subject issued by the makers of ZEMO. It tells how to cure yourself at home of Eczema, Blackheads, Pimples, Dandruff, and all diseases of the skin and scalp. Call at F. E. Wolcott's Drug Store for Booklet and learn more about this clean, simple remedy that is now recognized the standard treatment for all diseases of the skin and scalp.

Americans Exaggerate

In nothing are the American people more extravagant than in the use of words. Our daily conversation is of such prodigality as to amaze those unaccustomed to our habits. We would be taken for a race more bloodthirsty than any tribe of savages known to history if our speech were to be accepted literally.

The language we possess may not be the most euphonious, nor the most expressive, nor the easiest to learn, but none of these shortcomings can excuse the general tenor of the present day. We fail to give thought to the simplest rules of conduct when we are talking about commonplace affairs. When we are thirsty we are usually "dying of thirst"; when we meet a friend, we are "overjoyed to see you"; when the rain is falling, it is generally a "terrible rain"; we are "crazy to see a show"; we are often "tickled to death"; we tell one who brings a message relieving our anxiety that "you have saved my life."

The use of superlatives is apart from the use of slang. While one prone to be extravagant in words if often addicted to irregular English, there is not necessarily any relation between the two. Adjectives or gorgeous hue fall from our lips with a fluency and unconcern such as to startle one when the attention is called to the condition which exists. We are so accustomed to a phraseology of superlatives that they pass unnoticed in most cases.

A society for the suppression of exaggerated words might find a field of usefulness. Melodrama of the lurid type is only picturing what we daily enact figuratively. The English language is an excellent vehicle for the transfer of thought, and its normal, natural uses should suffice. But it is time to call a halt, or we will have killed many of the best words by giving them a meaning far different from that in the dictionary.

GUARDING AMERICANS IN TROPICS

of coming to Cincinnati to spend some time during the Exposition.

Within the past few days another trump card has been played by the Exposition in securing the promise of Former President Roosevelt to come to Cincinnati during the time of the Exposition. Colonel Roosevelt is desirous of coming here for several reasons. It was his great-uncle, Nicholas Roosevelt, who built the first steamboat that navigated the Ohio river, she being launched just 100 years ago—in 1810—and it being partially in commemoration of this event that the exposition is being held. It also was in Cincinnati in 1902 that Colonel Roosevelt, then president of the United States, made his first public official declaration in favor of improvement of inland waterways, a plan of conservation which has resulted, among other things, in the building of the Fernbach dam in the Ohio river, near Cincinnati, the completion of which, also will be celebrated by the Exposition. It is expected that Colonel Roosevelt will spend several days in the city during the Exposition as the guest of his son-in-law, Congressman Nicholas Longworth.

FAMOUS POTTERY MAY GIVE DEMONSTRATIONS

Cincinnati, O. —(Special.)— Efforts are being made to have the Rookwood Pottery, Cincinnati's famous home of ceramics, place a working model in the Ohio Valley Exposition. It is the boast of the Rookwood management that it produces no duplicates—that every piece of art ware produced by its associates is an original. If this display is made, it will show how the various kinds of vases and other pieces are fashioned, and it is believed that arrangements can be made by which prospective buyers may be allowed to place their autographs upon such pieces as they may select and have them decorated, glazed and produced later on. This practice has been pursued with a number of noted actresses and actors who have visited the Rookwood Pottery, including Mme. Schumann-Heineck, Eleanor Robson, Madame Modjeska, E. S. Willard and others, and it is believed that it would add much to the attractiveness and general interest of the ceramic display at the Exposition.

yield of 41 bushels per acre was secured. In Alabama, Mississippi, Tennessee, Texas, Louisiana and Arkansas similar good results have been obtained by scientific cultivation, so that it is a reasonable estimate to make that 45 bushels to the acre can be secured with proper care and attention. Many cotton planters are turning to other staples as part of their annual crops because of the blighting work of the cotton boll weevil, and those who have taken up the growing of corn are finding that it promises more than any other product. The display of Southern-grown corn at the Ohio Valley Exposition promises to be comprehensive and of excellent quality, and those assembling this exhibit declare that it will compare in every way with the best examples that will be offered by growers of the Ohio Valley or the prairie states.

POWER BOAT OF CONCRETE NOW BEING CONSTRUCTED

Cincinnati, O. —(Special.)— What probably will be the first boat built of concrete navigating by its own power will soon be constructed in this city for use on the Miami and Erie canal during the Ohio Valley Exposition, which opens Aug. 29 and closes Sept. 24. This boat will be built on plans devised on information received from the United States War Department in regard to the construction of barges of concrete for use on the Panama canal work. It has been found that barges of this kind can be constructed more economically than wooden barges, and that they are just as easily handled as ordinary barges, with the advantage that they can be more readily cleaned of sea parasites than wooden barges. The method of construction is similar to that employed in erecting concrete buildings, in that the concrete is spread over wire framework, making a perfectly rigid and waterproof surface throughout.

It is planned to utilize this boat to tow pleasure barges, also constructed of concrete, on the canal during the Exposition, the barges to be brilliantly illuminated and each supplied with musicians, a sort of continuous water carnival being thus inaugurated, the beauty of which will be augmented by the canal and brilliant illumination.

Socialists of the Sixth district have nominated William L. Parkins of Milton for congress. O. A. Launk of Richmond will be re-elected district chairman; J. C. Ball of Richmond, district secretary, and Clinton Holder, Hagerstown, district organizer. Tickets will be put in the field in each county in the district.

The State Statistician's report shows that the Indiana mule is worth more than six million dollars—an average of $100 a head. Since the mule has become the haughty aristocrat of the animal creation the "party of the people" ought to get out an injunction against his further use as a democratic emblem.

While you are sweltering and using your handkerchief liberally to get rid of the surplus perspiration, do not get in a complaining mood for the corn, oats and wheat stalks are reveling in this temperature and making leaps and bounds toward maturity. Nature works in mysterious ways its wonders to perform, and is closely allied with the Allwise One, in this great work.

The socialist mayor of Milwaukee has hit upon a good idea in suggesting that persons who run street cars and automobiles through the streets of Milwaukee must be licensed after an examination to determine their fitness for such a responsibility. No inexperienced person should be permitted to drive through the streets of any city a piece of machinery he cannot control under all circumstances. The regulation proposed by Milwaukee's mayor deserves consideration in every city in the country.

So far as the State organization is concerned, the Democratic party is a machine, doing the whimsical behest of Thomas Taggart. Gathered in State convention, the same party proved itself to be at least half-Taggartized, with all that implies, in the way of trickery and bossism. The State platform is a Taggart-Joe Bailey document. The State ticket is Taggart from one end to the other. So, after all, what is the Democratic party, as now controlled in Indiana, and what does it offer to the independent voter?

What Congress Has Done.

The excellent program of President Taft was not totally carried out, during the session of congress just closed, but that body redeemed itself during the closing hours from the general belief that the session was to be an unfruitful one. The President got through as much remedial legislation as any man could have done. Some of his measures, it is true, were slightly weakened by opposition, but in one form or another, and carrying with them substantial gains for the people several of the more important were finally enacted of which the following is a short summary:

Railroad laws revised so as to give the government greater control over carriers engaged in interstate commerce.

Supervision of stock issues of railroads provided in new legislation. Court of Commerce created to deal with disputes between railroads and shippers.

Law relating to use of safety appliances on railroads extended. Increase in navy authorized by law providing for construction of two first class battleships and many smaller craft.

Statehood granted to Arizona and New Mexico, separately.

Postal savings bank law passed.

Legislation enacted giving the executive unrestricted power in withdrawing lands from the public domain for conservation purposes.

Campaign contribution publicity law enacted.

Issuance of $20,000,000 in certificates of indebtedness to complete reclamation projects authorized.

Bureau of mines created. Scope of tariff board extended. Law passed to suppress white slave traffic.

Commission created to study possibility of reducing cost of government.

New tariff system provided for Philippine Islands.

Liquor traffic in Hawaiian Islands practically prohibited under new laws enacted.

Appropriation of $100,000 made to protect life and property in the Colorado River Valley.

Passed rivers and harbors bill.

Passed public building bill carrying $20,000,000.

Passed pension bill carrying $156,000,000.

Passed appropriation bills which aggregate $1,054,000,000.

"Wet" and Proud of It.

Much has been said about the benefits of "dry" conditions in this State. For a change we copy below what the Hartford City Times-Gazette has to say about conditions in Hartford City. The Times-Gazette is a decidedly "wet" paper in a "wet" territory:

"There was an unusually large intoxication all day Saturday. Rose Slater, an old offender, fell into the clutches of Night Policeman Ruble and was promptly landed behind the bars. Rose is still in jail.

"There was an unusually large crowd in town Saturday night. The weather was ideal although rather warm and many hundreds of out of town visitors were in the city. Little old Hartford City is a mecca for many, and the 'drys' are pretty sore over the failure of the 'festival of crime' to arrive on schedule time. It is about time for a bunch of the sore headed 'drys' who have had a grudge on for the past year or so, to wake up and open their eyes to the city of Hartford City as it really is. Their attempts to slander the town by publication and circulation of misleading reports is an outrage. The records of some of the leaders in the 'dry' movement if printed, would not compare very favorably even with that of the most habitual drunkard, who is advertised in 'wet' territory and suppressed in 'dry' limits."

EDITORIALETTES.

It is said that several men called up their wives after reading the local papers the other evening, just to see if they were still at home.

Our idea of nothing to get excited over is the announcement that two fish and game commissioners are in the city.

It might be mentioned that the dirigible balloon which has been running in Germany on regular trips, at $50 a throw is now hung up in the trees some place. This is done only to confirm all of this talk about the high cost of living.

That nothing will draw a crowd better than a band was again demonstrated today.

Twenty newspaper men went up in the dirigible balloon in Germany and landed in the tree tops. They might have scooped their brothers on earth, but there was nothing doing in the clouds.

Not a week until the safe and sane and already it is possible to hear an explosion occasionally.

Any farmer who did not come for the "Big Wednesday" celebration, stayed at home and plowed corn. Startling, but true!

What Our Neighbors Are Talking About

UNPOPULAR THERE.

(Shelbyville Democrat.)

A. M. Gallion, a fish and game commissioner, who became decidedly unpopular during his stay in Shelby county, has been heard from over in Rush county. In company with C. P. Wolf, another warden, Gallion chased three men with a seine for more than a quarter of a mile Saturday and finally effected a capture of the whole party.

ASKED FOR DIVORCE.

(Connersville News.)

Connersville friends of Senator and Mrs. E. E. Moore will be surprised to learn that Mrs. Moore was recently denied a divorce by the court of Vermillion county, where the case was filed.

Mrs. Moore has been living in Clinton, Ind., for several months past. The case came to trial last Friday, but before the trial had proceeded far the court threw the case out of court, it is understood, because Mrs. Moore was not able to substantiate any of her allegations.

Mrs. Moore alleged abandonment and cruel treatment in her complaint and asked for the custody of their young son.

Mr. Moore did not appear in person at the trial, but was represented by an attorney.

CROP OF FISH-WORMS.

(Greenfield Reporter.)

As the season for summer vacations is approaching and the minds of summer vacationists are turning towards the northern lakes and they have visions of fine catches of fish, a little story about bait for the fish is not out of place.

There are many kinds of bait but the best kind for lake fishing is the common fishing or angle worm. It is not generally known that some of the Greenfield people fish in the lakes of Michigan with worms taken from Hancock county but it is nevertheless true. They gather worms and place them in a box filled with soft fertile soil and grow and develop them by careful feeding. The worm food is milk and sweetened water. On this kind of food the worms thrive and grow large and luscious for fishing, and the man who has the finest collection of angle worms is the man who brings home the largest catch when the day's sport is over.

SEEK LEGAL VENGEANCE.

(Greensburg News.)

Harry Luken and Clarence Schlaap living three miles from Millhouse, were in the city this morning consulting attorneys about filing affidavits against Game Warden F. M. Ehlers, of Indianapolis, who they charge with shooting at them with intent to kill.

According to the story of Luken, on Sunday, May 22, he and Schlaap were out walking on his (Luken's) farm. They were not hunting, though they did carry a gun.

In the course of their stroll they met Ehlers and Deputy Game Warden Soltong. Ehlers commanded them to stop, but ignoring his command, they broke and ran. It was then that Ehlers drew his revolver and fired a shot in their direction. The men believe he fired to hit, for the bullet whizzed past in mighty close quarters.

After the first shot the two young men stopped running and waited for the wardens to approach. They further charge that Ehlers drew his mace and threatened to "cave in" their heads if they did not go with him peacefully.

The young men believe that they have not been treated right in the affair and they are determined to get legal revenge if possible. They claim they have sufficient evidence to show that the warden shot to kill and it will be on this charge that an affidavit will be filed and the case tried if they decide to press it.

Hints to Giddy Girls

The mother who allows a 16-year old daughter to float around the township in a top buggy until 2 a. m. with a counterfeit sport of a weak jaw and weaker morals, merely opens the front door to grief and disgrace, says an exchange. If you don't know what company your girl keeps or what time of the night she turns in, your roar when the gossips get busy will sound about as pathetic as the wheeze of a jewsharp. The girl who insists on spooning with every body in the corporate limits ought to be backed into the woodshed and relieved of her overflow of affections with a No. 11 slipper laid carelessly across her hips. We would rather see a girl kiss a blind shoat through a barbed wire fence than have her change partners six nights a week in the front parlor with the lights turned low. It is harder to marry off a girl who has been pawed over by every yap in the community that it is to fatten a sheep on pineapple ice. You can't gold brick a sharp-eyed suitor with second-hand goods and more than you can fit a bathrobe on a goat.

There are lots of weak-minded parents who are going up against the judgment day with about as much show as a cross-eyed girl at a beauty show, and their children will rise up and call them blessed with the enthusiasm of a one-legged man at a club dance.

More Ways Than One

According to a special dispatch from Eli, Nebraska, in the Chicago Sunday Tribune, the toppers of that town and the Indians on the reservation, have found an excellent way and it might be well to look after some "dry" territory nearer home: The Tribune article follows:

"This always has been a dry town, but during the last three months many drunken people have been seen on the streets. Where the liquor came from has been something that has puzzled the authorities, for the stores and business houses have been watched and no suspicious packages have come to any of them.

"The base of supply was located a couple of days ago, when Mary Renaldo, a half-breed Sioux, was seen staggering down the main street. At the lookup she was searched but no bottles were found. However, in the pocket of a long rain coat she carried a paper sack nearly filled with pink gum drops. She was so insistent that the gum drops were simply candy that Marshal Downs sampled them. As he bit into one of them about a thimbleful of whiskey gushed into his mouth.

"In Mary's paper sack she had nearly a pound of candy, and it contained enough liquor to produce a large sized jar.

"This gum drop drunk has solved the liquor problem and it has settled the question why the Indians and some white people about town have been so fond of gum drops. This particular variety of candy can not be bought here, but on the reservation it is claimed that there are two white men who for more than a year have made a business of sending to Omaha and having shipped to them once or twice a week large packages of gum drops.

Two Keys

The cash box should have two keys, and husband and wife have these keys at all times. Or, if a bank account is kept, money should always be deposited subject to check by either husband or wife. Then, whenever any extra or special expense is to be incurred, each should advise and plan with the other as to the outlay and best means of liquidating the obligation of expense. Where each shares the responsibility of friction and bickerings would never arise. Whenever any point is to be gained, a little quiet, loving, coaxing conference will usually accomplish more than any childish, selfish, pouting three.

NINE TON MACHINE FALLS ON HIS ARM

Sam Thatcher, a Brother of Francis Thatcher, of This City, Has Hand Amputated.

NARROWLY ESCAPED DEATH

Francis Thatcher, who is working for Derby Green, returned last night from Cincinnati, where he went to see his brother, Sam, who met with a serious accident Saturday. While moving a machine weighing nine tons, one of the skids slipped out from under the machine. The foreman told Sam to get under the machine to adjust the skid, but instead he reached in under with his arm. Just then another workman removed a jack, when the heavy machine came down on his arm, mashing it so that the hand had to be amputated. Had Mr. Thatcher obeyed the foreman's order, he would have been killed.

Peril in "Sparklers"

A contributor has spoken of the danger of the "harmless" sparklers. This can hardly be too much emphasized in the light of Cleveland's experience. July 2, 1908, a young woman was demonstrating a sparkler in a large ten-cent store in that city. A spark caught a bit of the cotton binding draped above, leaped to the next counter, where Roman candles and fire crackers were on sale, and in a moment a crowded store, filled with highly inflammable material, was full of darting, burning missiles. The exits at the back of the store were not what they should have been, and seven bodies were found after the fire department had put out a fire which had menaced the heart of the retail district.

The city had a shadowed Fourth, and at its earliest opportunity the council passed an ordinance forbidding the display, sale or use of all fireworks except under direct municipal supervision—C. L. S. in Good Housekeeping Magazine.

INDIANA POLITICS

[Special Correspondence.]

Indianapolis, June 29.—The part Governor Marshall did not take in a certain strawberry festival at French Lick last week, is causing a lot of comment these days among the politicians. Democratic editors were in mid-summer session at the home of Thomas Taggart, yet the Democratic governor did not attend the session. A most important conference of Democratic party leaders was on, and a most important scheme for starting a Democratic publicity bureau was pending. Yet the Democratic governor was not there to have his say on any of the vital questions discussed. The Democratic governor was not present by proxy, unless John W. Kern can be called a proxy. The publicity bureau was talked over without advice from the governor, but John Kern, coached by Marshall, put in a demand for a non-factional bureau. It is understood Guernsey Van Riper, formerly of Anderson, but lately city editor of the Indianapolis Star, was suggested for the head of the Democratic press bureau. Van Riper writes clever verses, and is a musical critic of ability. What he knows of Indiana politics and party harmony is yet to be shown. Possibly he is chosen on the theory that being void of political knowledge, he can go to the game with a clear mind, and without regard to past quarrels of which he knows little. The Marshall people feel they would have a friend in Van Riper, and the Taggart people have been assured by George Beebe, of the Eighth district, that Van Riper would give them the proper heed in matters of party policy. It is not yet known when the Democrats will start their publicity machinery.

Speaking of publicity, that was a smooth trick put across on 140 Democratic editors by T. Taggart, when he hired, at his own expense a weekly letter service out of Washington, D. C., and donated it for nine or ten weeks to the Democratic papers of Indiana. It was like Tom to have it casually announced, just previous to the French Lick blowout for these same editors, that he had been playing fairly god-father to them in the matter of the national capital correspondence signed "Tavener." It was like Taggart, also, to see that the editors wrote in to the Democratic state central committee, demanding that the committee continue the Taggart-Tavener service out of Washington. Here again is the moving of the Judson Harmon boom, working through Taggart in Indiana. Taggart has put the Democratic editors of the state under obligations to him. He has spent his money to give them service. He has filled them with delicatessen. He has puffed them out with fatness. He has reason to expect that these editors will continue to feel friendly towards him and to esteem him their guide and comforter. Hence it is easy to see that the "Tavener" letters, straight from the Harmon publicity bureau at Washington, will continue to be sent and to be used by the Taggartized Democratic editors. All of which means that the name of Governor Marshall of Indiana has small chance of finding place in the Washington correspondence of these Indiana papers. On the other hand the Harmon presidential movement will be carefully, though quietly, boosted by "Tavener." This is the view some of the Marshall men take of the "Tavener" proposition.

Joseph B. Keating, corporation counsel for Indianapolis; Fred A. Sims, secretary of state and a member of the Republican state advisory committee, and James A. Hemenway, former United States senator from Indiana, were guests of President Taft a day or two ago, and talked Indiana politics on the White House back porch. The conference was productive of much apparent satisfaction among the Indiana men, according to the Washington correspondents. Neither of the men would talk following the conference. It is taken as significant by Indiana Republicans generally that Keating, Sims and Hemenway are all busy working for Republican party success, in spite of all Democratic talk to the effect that they would refrain from taking active part this year. Mr. Sims has predicted within the last week that all the "old guard" of Indiana Republicans would be working lustily and sincerely for the whole Republican ticket before the coming of August. In fact, most of the old organization workers have been doing effective party work for several weeks past. In view of the fact that the future of the Republican party in Indiana is involved in the struggle of 1910, it is taken to be only the part of good Republicans to put forth every effort to gain victory.

Death in Cock's Spur.

Boston, June 29.—Colonel William Bradford Homer, U. S. A., retired, is dead at Narrick after but a few days' illness. Colonel Homer was sixty-four years old. He was inspecting the fowl on his place one day last week when he received a spur prick on the back of the right hand from a gamecock. The wound became serious and Monday the arm was cut off at the shoulder. Blood poisoning was too fast along to be checked.

Unless something unexpected happens, both Colonel Roosevelt and Mr. Taft will go to Frankfort, Ky., on Nov. 29, to attend the conference of governors which meets there.

AMUSEMENTS

The Vaudet management offers a good program tonight in the film "Company D to the Rescue." It is a Bison picture and is said to be one of the best ever reproduced by the company. It depicts a story of an unusual type with a strong plot and good dramatic action.

The Palace will show a Biograph picture, "The Marked Timetable." This production shows a powerful lesson to over-indulgent mothers whose maternal love works a most disastrous effect on their children. The young man in the story has fallen into evil company and his scrapes are always covered by his mother, making him bold enough to go to greater lengths, until finally he commits a deed that serves him as a bitter lesson, and realizing his own worthlessness he firmly resolves to amend. The mother also appreciates how ill-advised her kindness in condoning the boy's faults was. A new illustrated song will be sung.

The Star Grand offers two Biograph subjects tonight. The first is a comedy drama entitled "Never Again." The second subject is a comedy entitled "May and December." Both subjects are extra fine. Earl Robertson will sing "Cupid's I. O. U."

"Dead or alive, he is better off than we," said De Sylva. He questioned Marcel again briefly. "There can be no doubt that the man in the boat cast off the lashings when he found that the ship was sinking," he continued in English. "Marcel saw him doing that and wondered why he was alone. At any rate, if he is carried beyond the reef he has a fighting chance. We have none."

"Why not? Are these men on the island so deaf to human sympathies that they would murder all of us in cold blood?"

The girl's sweet, low pitched voice sounded inexpressibly sad in that vaulted place. Even De Sylva's studied control gave way before its music. He uttered some anguished appeal to the Deity in his own tongue and flung out his hands impulsively.

"What would you have me say?" he cried, and his eyes blazed. "I might lie to you and try to persuade you that we can exist here without food or water, whereas tomorrow or next day at the utmost will see most of us dead. But in a few hours you will realize what it means to be kept on this bare rock under a tropical sun. You can do one thing. Your party greatly outnumbered mine. Climb to the topmost pinnacle and signal to the island. You will soon be seen."

He laughed with a savage irony that was not good to hear, but Coke caught at the suggestion.

"Even that is better'n tearin' one another like mad dogs," he growled. "I know wot's comin'. I've seen it wotst."

Hozier made for the exit, where Marcel stood irresolute, apparently waiting for orders.

"Where are you going?" demanded De Sylva.

"To see what is becoming of the life-boat."

"Better not. You cannot help your friend, and the instant it becomes known to the troops that there is a living soul on the Grand-pere rock they will come in a steam launch and shoot every one at sight."

"Will that be the answer to our signal?"

It was Iris who asked the question, and the Brazilian's voice softened again.

"Yes," he said.

"Why, then, do you advise us to seek our own destruction?"

He bowed. His manner was almost humble.

"It is the easier way," he murmured.

"Is there no other?"

Tell Some Sick One

It is Free If It Fails.

Will you do an act of humanity? Will you tell some sick friend of this, my remarkable offer?

Tell him or her, that you have learned of a medicine so certain that its maker dare say to the sick, "It is absolutely and unconditionally free if it fails."

And you, no doubt, already know of Dr. Shoop's Restorative and its popularity.

For 20 years it has been the standard remedy for Stomach, Kidney and Heart ailments everywhere in America.

When the "inside" or controlling nerves of these vital organs begin to fail, it is Dr. Shoop's Restorative that has quickly vitalized, and strengthened, and brought these nerves and organs back to health again.

I do not dose the Stomach, nor stimulate the Heart or Kidneys—for that is all wrong.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative goes direct to the cause of these ailments—the failing, faltering, inside or controlling nerves. And herein lies the keynote to my success.

When these nerves are again made well and strong, then that is the certain end of all such sickness.

To me it is a great satisfaction that I am the only physician able to say to the suffering sick, "Take my prescription for full 30 days and if it fails to help you, the entire expense is mine—not yours."

Then why should the sick take any chance on any other medicine, whose maker dare not back it just as I do by this remarkable offer?

I also have a Rheumatic Remedy—and that remedy is covered by the same identical "No help, no pay" protective plan.

Besides, you are free to consult me first as you would your home physician. My advice and the book below are yours—and without cost.

Perhaps a word or two from me will clear up some serious ailment. I have helped thousands upon thousands by my private prescription of personal advice plan. My best effort is surely worth your simple request.

So let me send you an order at once. Take the message to some sick friend.

A postal will bring the opportunity.

I will have an honest and trustworthy drugist to whom you can conveniently go for the 30 day test.

But first, ask me for the order, for all drugists are not authorized to give the 30 day test.

So write me now and save all delays. Remember that tomorrow never comes. Address Dr. Shoop, Box 12, Racine, Wis.

WEAK, WEARY WOMEN

Learn the Cause of Daily Woes and End Them.

When urinary disorders set in Women's lot is a weary one. There is a way to escape these woes.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure such ills. Have cured women here in Rushville.

This is one Rushville woman's testimony.

Mrs. William Merrill, 332 West Fourth street, Rushville, Ind., says: "For some time I suffered from a weak and painful back and I was also subject to headaches. I had but little energy and the simplest of my household duties was a burden. My husband finally procured Doan's Kidney Pills for me at F. B. Johnson & Co.'s Drug Store and since taking them my condition has been better in every way. I am grateful to Doan's Kidney Pills for their good work."

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

AN OLD-TIME PRESCRIPTION

In a modern product. From time immemorial sage and sulphur have been used for the hair and scalp. Almost every one knows of the value of such a combination for darkening the hair and making it grow. In olden times the only way to get a hair tonic of this sort was to brew it in the home fireplace, a method which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost every up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready to use product, skillfully compounded in perfectly equipped laboratories. Such a preparation is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, which is sold by all leading druggists for 50c. and $1.00 a bottle, or which is sent direct by the Wyeth Chemical Company, 74 Cortlandt St., New York City, upon receipt of price.

For sale and recommended by Hargrove & Mullin.

a fantastic chance, and I can see no other. But what can we do without arms?"

"Use our heads," put in Hozier. "Bring us to the island, Senhor de Sylva, and we will make a fight of it. In any case, even if we fail, they will not deliberately kill a woman. There must be other women there who will intervene in behalf of one of their own sex. But we may succeed. It is improbable that the whole of the troops will be gathered in one spot. Why should we not take some small detachment by surprise and secure their weapons? If we can land unobserved we ought to be able to drop on them apparently from the skies. I take it that the presence here of Captain San Benavides is unknown, and the leadership of an officer in the enemy's own uniform should turn the scale in our favor. Have you no followers among the troops or islanders? Suppose we make good our first attack and seize a strong position. Isn't it probable we may receive assistance from your partisans?"

"Perhaps—among the convicts," was De Sylva's grim reply.

"No officials or soldiers?"

"Not one. They are chosen for this service on account of their animosity against the former government. How else could you account for their treatment of unarmed men on a ship crippled by their first shell?"

"You spoke of a steam launch. Where is that kept?"

"At a wharf under the walls of the citadel, which commands the town and anchorage."

"Assuming we have a stroke of luck and rush some outpost, would it be possible to cross the island before dawn and board the launch or some other craft in which we can put to sea?"

"There are only the launch and some small fishing catamarans. No other boats are allowed to exist on the island, in order to prevent the escape of convicts. The boat we possess is really a badly constructed catamaran, without a sail and minus the outrigger which alone renders it safe for the shortest voyage."

In sickness, if a certain hidden nerve goes wrong, then the organ that this nerve controls will also surely fail. It may be a stomach nerve, or it may have given strength and support to the heart and kidneys. It was Dr. Shoop that first pointed to this vital truth. Dr. Shoop's Restorative was not made to dose the stomach nor to temporarily stimulate the heart or kidneys. That old-fashioned method is all wrong. Dr. Shoop's Restorative goes directly to these failing inside nerves. The remarkable success of this prescription demonstrates the wisdom of treating the actual cause of these failing organs. And it is indeed easy to prove. A simple five or ten days test will surely tell. Try it once and see! Sold by Frank E. Wolcott.

"Please, miss, an' gents all, may we smoke?" pleaded a voice.

Iris was for an immediate permission, but De Sylva shook his head.

"Not until the tide falls," he said. "There is a very real fear of a visit from the launch. It has passed this spot four times during the past two days—ever since my absence was discovered, in fact. The soldiers have searched every outlying island, but

Can a passing fashion, can an abstract cause, rob life of that which goes farthest down and farthest back? I am shocked that wise men should have so little faith, so little real insight. There is a disheartening shallowness about their whole contention. They talk as if the maternal instinct were an outside something, like a fashion in hats, and as if it were now making manifestations which they do not like and would correct by "reason." When did "reason" ever have anything to do with it? Could you reason with the law of gravitation because you thought it was not living up to its privileges and obligations? Women will follow the law of their natures, not because masculine or "womanly" arguments convince them, but because it was there before they were; they can no more help it than they can stop their hearts from beating; they have no more choice in the matter than they have in regard to having hands and feet, nor as much. Our ambitious youngsters who hope to "do much for the world" in the way of abstract causes, bow like grass before the winds of God, when the winds of God begin to blow. And if, as sometimes happens, for them they do not blow, these workers, for the most part, carry out their tasks sweetly and courageously, finding their places, and necessary places, in this great commonwealth of humanity. Quite as amenable to the underlying laws of life are the older and sterner members of womankind who chatter on platforms about women's rights. When this kind fall, they fall like Lucifer. I have even observed, though I realize that it will take several aeons before men find this out, that the strongest-minded women are usually the ones capable of the strongest affections; the most apparently unsexed often, in the deepest sense, the most womanly. How can we blame men for not discovering this, when often, through some oversight of blundering Dame Nature—who seems to make as many mistakes as do other feminine creatures—the women do not suspect it themselves?—July Scribner.

Marcel reappeared at the entrance. With him was another man, whom Hozier remembered seeing when he was hauled up from the ship with Iris.

"Ah, I was not mistaken," went on De Sylva. "Here comes news of the launch! They have signaled for it across the island."

Marcel entered the cave with an expressive gesture, for long habit had almost robbed him of his native vivacity. His companion, Domingo, climbed the opposite wall of the ravine and stretched himself at full length in a niche where there was room for a man to lie. Some tufts of rough grass grew there in sufficient density to conceal his head while he peered between the stalks. They could see him quite plainly, but no one wanted to speak. Though the unceasing wash of a heavy swell against the rocks would have drowned the noise had they shouted in unison, there was no need to tell any one present that a very real and dangerous crisis had arrived.

The slow change in the direction of Domingo's gaze showed the approach and passing of the hostile vessel. It was evident that a long halt was made in the channel close to the wreck, of which some fragments remained above water. Still, curiously enough, it was impossible for those on board the launch to read the ship's name, since the word "Andromeda," twice embossed on the sharp cutwater, was hidden by the jutting rocks on both sides of the cleft.

At last Domingo turned his head slightly and gave them a reassuring little nod. He said something, which De Sylva translated.

"They have a photograph of the wreck," he said, "and are now steaming through the northerly channel to the anchorage on the west side of the island. Most fortunately, they do not seem to be aware of your drifting boat."

Then he added, with a courtliness that was so incongruous with his unkempt appearance and patched and tattered garments: "If the senhora permits, the men may smoke now. In another hour the 'WE MAY MAKE HISTORY' will not be navigable. We have a hot and tiring day before us, and I advise sleep for those to whom it is vouchsafed. If the weather continues to improve the next tide will bring us a smooth sea. Given that and a dark night—well, we may make history. Who knows?"

SUFFRAGE OR NO SUFFRAGE

Women Will Follow the Law of Their Natures.

Can a passing fashion, can an abstract cause, rob life of that which goes farthest down and farthest back? I am shocked that wise men should have so little faith, so little real insight. There is a disheartening shallowness about their whole contention. They talk as if the maternal instinct were an outside something, like a fashion in hats, and as if it were now making manifestations which they do not like and would correct by "reason." When did "reason" ever have anything to do with it? Could you reason with the law of gravitation because you thought it was not living up to its privileges and obligations? Women will follow the law of their natures, not because masculine or "womanly" arguments convince them, but because it was there before they were; they can no more help it than they can stop their hearts from beating; they have no more choice in the matter than they have in regard to having hands and feet, nor as much. STRONG NOMINEES IN ALL DISTRICTS

Republicans Pave Way for Victory All Along Line.

GOOD WORK IN OLD TWELFTH

Nomination of Heaton For Congress
Gives Added Hope For the Whole Ticket—Bland Hustling in Second—Neal Pushing Fight in Ninth—Crumpacker, Cox, Moorman, Thompson and Barnard Work For the Whole Ticket.

The nomination of Judge O. N. Heaton of Fort Wayne to make the race for congress in the Twelfth district on the Republican ticket, is believed to insure Republican success in that district. Democrats admit Judge Heaton is the most popular Republican in the district. Republicans say that with Judge Heaton at the head of the ticket in the district, the county Republican tickets will gain great added strength.
With Judge Heaton leading, the legislative and state ticket are expected to gather great force all over the Twelfth. This means added votes in the legislative caucus for the Republican candidate for United States senator, and more Republican legislative votes to be applied to the making of fair reapportionments, both congressional and legislative.

The confidence of Twelfth district Republicans is no stronger than that in the Tenth, where Judge Crumpack-er is opposed by John B. Peterson, counsel for the Steel corporation, the Western Union Telegraph company, and all the railroads in northern Indiana. Tenth district Democrats are badly split up locally, and the Republicans, as usual, are aggressively united, and have gained largely in voting strength.

Oscar E. Bland's fighting canvass in the Second is stirring the natives to a degree unusual. Mr. Bland is holding meetings of workers and editors, and proposes to make a house-to-house appeal for support. His ability as an organizer makes him formidable, and his opponent, W. A. Cullop, has failed as a politician as well as in congress.

E. E. Neal, in the Ninth district, Republican nominee against Martin Morrison, the Democratic son of rest from Frankfort, is preparing to storm the district. Mr. Neal has a united Republican party behind him, and this fact gives his candidacy just the impetus needed for putting him far in the lead of Morrison. Already the prophecies say Mr. Neal will be elected by 3,000. The Ninth has several legislative members and with a Republican congressman elected, these seats in the state assembly will be occupied by Republicans.

Judge W. O. Barnard of the Sixth is gaining steadily in public esteem and is restoring Republican confidence in large measure. His re-election is now conceded by thinking Democrats. The opposition picked the weak candidate out of its string of aspirants, and did the choosing in the heat of factional strife and bitterness. The result is that Democrats are seriously divided.

John L. Thompson, the farmer-manufacturer, who has been named as the harmony Republican candidate in the Eleventh, is doing much to unite all elements of his party. Readjustments in Cass county, just attained, indicate legislative and other gains in that quarter, and prove the district is solidly united for Republican victory.

Linton A. Cox, in the Seventh, is concededly the strong man in the congressional race. The united Republican party in Marion county is behind him with the best organization ever seen in Indiana politics. Mr. Cox is in a position to strengthen the whole Republican ticket in the Seventh. The Republicans have a strong ticket, named in such a way as to enlist all to its hearty support.

John L. Moorman's campaign in the Thirteenth is one that seems likely to become historic. Mr. Moorman's vigorous personality is one of the assets of Republicans in the north end of the state. He is slated to win, but he will work hard every minute of the campaign on behalf of all the candidates on the Republican ticket.

For the life of us we cannot see how the Democratic editors of Indiana were led to the folly of submitting to the dictation of Thomas Taggart. But some of these same editors have gone so far as to sing the praises of Taggart.
Lew Ellingham says Taggart is a "distinguished Democrat" who has been "persecuted."

Governor Marshall has much to say of alleged vote-buying in a Vanderburg county Republican primary. What does he say of alleged vote-buying in the Democratic legislative caucus of 1909? What does he say when these latter charges are made by his bosom friend, John W. Kern?

Looking at the Democratic situation from a distance, it seems to be a choice between Tom Taggart, oily boss on one hand, and Steve Fleming, the Democratic governor's vice gerent of plunder, on the other.

The humiliation of John W. Kern needs only another caucus betrayal to make it pitifully complete.

YOUNG CASHIER PLEADS GUILTY

Swormstedt Lays Blame for Trouble Upon Uncle.

RELIED ON LATTER'S FIGURES

Former Cashier of Citizens' National Bank at Evansville, Pleading Guilty to Making False Entries in His Reports to Examiners, Said That He Had Always Depended on Figures Given Him by President Gillett.

Indianapolis, June 29.—William Swormstedt, former cashier of the Citizens' National bank of Evansville, following an arrest for which he came especially from Arizona, pleaded guilty to a violation of the national bank laws when arraigned before Judge Anderson in his court chamber. Simon P. Gillett, uncle of Swormstedt and former president of the bank, entered a plea of not guilty, and will be tried Dec. 1. Until Gillett's case is disposed of Judge Anderson will hold the other case under advisement.

Swormstedt's indictment cites thirty-seven instances of false entries in his reports to national bank examiners and to the controller of the currency. His plea was he had depended on figures given him by his uncle, who had taken him into the bank before he was of age, and upon whom he had always leaned for counsel in making the reports.

His only answer, when questioned by Judge Anderson as to the law demanding accuracy, was that he "supposed he should have known accuracy was required."

His bond was fixed at $10,000, which was furnished by Evansville friends.

SELF DEFENSE

This is the Claim of Man Who Fatally Shot Policeman.

Lebanon, Ind., June 29.—Albert Spohn, alias Walter Whitlock, on trial here for the murder of Patrolman Joseph Krupp at Indianapolis on the morning of April 9, testified before Judge Parr, in the absence of the jury, that the paper he signed soon after his arrest, purporting to be a confession, was obtained through intimidation on the part of Superintendent Hyland and Detective Holtz of the Indianapolis police department. Spohn's companion, Bill Brown, substantiated the testimony.

The proceedings indicate that the defense of Spohn will be that he and Brown, when accosted by Patrolmen Krupp and Patrolmen Groves, did not recognize them in the dark as officers of the law, and that the shooting was in self-defense.

The trial is attracting little attention here, and the attendance is not large. The father, mother and little daughter of the dead patrolman are in attendance, but the widow is unable to be present. The defendant's mother and one of his brothers are here from Pittsburg.

Killed in Auto Crash.

Hammond, Ind., June 29.—Peter Ripley, aged thirty-two, timekeeper for the Simplex Railway Appliance company, was killed in an automobile accident here and six people were badly injured. George Heiser, Frank Bick and Frank Baker are at St. Margaret's hospital internally injured and with broken bones. The injuries to the others are not serious.

Young Woman Kills Herself.

Fort Wayne, Ind., June 29.—Miss Viola Heney, sixteen years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Heney, living in Whitley county, committed suicide by shooting herself in the temple. It is said she had been keeping company with a young man to whose attentions the girl's parents objected.

Fatal Family Dispute.

Bedford, Ind., June 29.—Dras Stannard, a young man, shot Marion Devine twice, the shots taking effect in Devine's abdomen. The trouble grew out of a family fuss. Both families live in the same house, and the men are employed at the quarries. Devine cannot survive his wounds.

Mangled Body Found on Track.

Terre Haute, Ind., June 29.—When a Vandalia freight arrived in the yards here a man's hand was found on the pilot. Later the mangled body of John Spangler, seventy-five, a basketmaker, was found on the track, six miles west of the city.

Sleuths Well Paid.

Washington, Ind., June 29.—The city council allowed claims of $1,000 to two members of a private detective agency of Indianapolis for work in this city in attempting to ferret out the illegal sale of liquor.

Crushed Beneath Car.

Indianapolis, June 29.—Alonzo R.
Kitchell, the owner of a restaurant and bakery at 636 Massachusetts avenue, was crushed to death by a College avenue car, in front of his place of business.

Horrid Death of Child.

Auburn, Ind., June 29.—Harold Smith, aged two, ran away from home to a neighbor, where he fell into a fifteen-gallon swill jar and drowned.

velt's Ohio Representative.

IDA VON CLAUSSEN SUES FOR MILLION

And Colonel Roosevelt Is One of the Defendants.

New York, June 29.—Ida Von Claussen, once the wife of Dr. William Francis Honan, whose coming to America to see Theodore Roosevelt and other notables was announced from Paris a few weeks ago, appeared at the county courthouse yesterday with a complaint which she insisted on filing in the county clerk's office.
Her complaint charges Theodore Roosevelt, Robert Bacon, ambassador at Paris, Charles Graves, minister to Sweden, and Mrs. Alice Wright Graves, his wife, with slander and conspiracy. She declares that through the machinations of these distinguished persons she was deprived of a royal marriage with Prince Eugene of Sweden as the bridegroom. Wherefore she demands $1,000,000 damages. She explained that she had been unable on account of the baleful influence of Roosevelt and the rest, to get a lawyer to take her case, but added exultantly that she had now stolen a march on them all, for having filed her complaint, the courts would have to provide counsel for her.

CUBANS AGITATED

Sensational Incident in Congress Not Yet Closed.

Havana, June 29.—The public prosecutor denounced in court the attempt of Representative Lores to shoot Representative San Miguel in the cloakroom of the house of representatives.
The Lucha, of which Senor San Miguel is editor, openly charges the government with conspiring to have him killed in order that it may pass the arsenal deal and other scandalous schemes which Senator San Miguel opposes. It says the editor of another paper has been threatened. San Miguel declares that he was warned that an attempt on his life would be made, but he could not learn who the would-be assassin was. The paper says that it will continue its opposition until Senor San Miguel is killed and that it will remain after the conspirators have passed away.

Lores in an interview says he intended to kill San Miguel and still intends to do so. The opposition papers say the shooting is the beginning of the republic's end.

Nearing Golden Jubilee.

Baltimore, June 29.—Cardinal Gibbons will celebrate the forty-ninth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood tomorrow.

The oldest mummy known was discovered in the Medium Pyramids in 1891, and now is in the Museum of the Royal College of Surgeons. Its age is 2700 B. C., and it is eleven centuries older than any mummy yet discovered that was not a mere rag and a bunch of hair.

COBE CUP RACE ON THE HOLIDAY

Event at Motor Speedway on Fourth Expected to Have Largest Number of Entries.

ATTRACTIONS ON JULY 1 AND 2

Card For Independence Day Promised to Surpass Even the Decoration Day Races.

The events that will make up the program for the meet at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway for July 1, 2 and 4 promises to surpass even the attractive card of the Memorial day meet when the championships were run. The Cobe cup, the Vanderbilt of the West will be the Independence Day feature, while the Remy Brassard on July 2d and the G. & J. trophy on July first round out the long list of events.

The G. & J. trophy will be for cars in the small class at the distance of fifty miles. The Remy Brassard inches in piston displacement or less trophy shall be for cars of 450 for stock chassis while the Cobe cup shall be for cars of 600 cubic inches or less with a minimum weight of 2300 pounds. A series of short events will also make up the program with cash for first and second place in all events excepting the long races for which the cash will be given for the winners.

In the handicaps and free for alls the purses will be increased. In the handicaps there will be cash purses for the first six drivers to cross the tape while for the free for alls there will be cash purses for the first three drivers to cross the tape.

In addition to the long events there will be events of five, ten and twenty miles each day, while there will be feature events added.

The Speedway management have decided to continue their policy of starting the races at 1 p. m. This has been found to be a very suitable arrangement as it gives the record trials first place on the card and those who do not desire to witness trials can be arriving at the course at 2 p. m. be in time for most of the short events and by arriving at the track at 3 p. m. be in plenty of time to see the long distance races.

The record crowd of May 30 promises to be surpassed at the July meet, and the increased seating capacity now being constructed will take care of the crowd. 35,000 spectators can now be seated at the grounds and this has been found to be insufficient so that the seating capacity will be increased to 50,000, while a special paddock will be fenced to accommodate 10,000 more to be used in case of emergency.

The parking space will accommodate 10,000 automobiles and this has never been tested to the utmost although it was stated that over 5000 automobiles passed through the gates of the Speedway on May 30th.

All of the cars that took part in the last races are expected while the Lozier and many other factories have promised to have cars entered at the next meet.

Performing before enormous crowds is what the manufacturer desires and it is at the Motor Speedway that they have their wish.

The Cobe classics of the Fourth promises to have the largest number of entries of an event ever held in the world. This record is now held at the Speedway for the Wheeler-Schebler trophy when 19 starters left the mark at the crack of Wagner's pistol and all records were lowered for 200 miles by Harroun with his great Speedway wasp the Marmon. Indianapolis factories are making great preparations to hold the bulk of prizes and trophies here while the outsiders are determined to wrest the laurels from them. The Buick company have promised to send some special racers to the Speedway that will eclipse the performances of the Big Benz driven by Oldfield and the predictions are that the foreign cars will not hold a single record after the next meet is over but that American made machines will sweep all before them in the free for alls in the same manner that they have won the stock car events.

AUTOMOBILE VERSUS A COVERED WAGON

Mrs. H. A. Elliott Starts Same Journey in Auto That Her Mother Made in Wagon.

HAVE HAD SUCCESSFUL TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Elliott and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Elliott of Des Moines, Iowa, who have been the guests of friends and relatives in this city for the past week, started on their return trip in their touring car this morning.

In 1856 Mrs. Adelia Clapp, who was the daughter of Brig. Gen. P. A. Hackleman, and who was the mother of Mrs. H. A. Elliott, made the same trip, which her daughter is now making in an automobile, in a covered wagon in company with her husband. At the time when Mrs. Clapp made her trip to Des Moines in the covered wagon, the trail was far from well worn and there were no transcontinental railroads, telegraph lines, telephones, automobiles or airships. But today commerce and travel are manifesting themselves in every conceivable form—forms which at one time seemed very impractical.

The trip of the Elliotts to Rushville in their machine was 1026 miles in length, and was made without a puncture or a blow-out and not a stop was necessitated except to obtain gasoline.

HOW TO KEEP COOL

A writer in an Eastern paper declares that an ordinary rubber water bag, half filled with cold water, such as comes from the hydrant, and placed as a pillow under the head on retiring, will reduce the temperature of the whole body on the hottest nights sufficiently to secure several hours of comparative relief and comfort. A change in the water on extremely hot nights may be necessary once or twice, but the ensuing comfort will compensate for the trouble. The same cold water cushion may be used as a head rest when reading or resting in hot weather. Here is a simple and inexpensive suggestion for the heated term.

NEW PRECINCT ADDED TO LIST

Appointed Committee Reduces No. 5 Which Was Too Large and Result is No. 10.

BOUNDARY LINES ARE GIVEN

New District is Located in the Western Portion of Rushville Township Beginning in City.

A committee of three men, J. Vincent Young, A. L. Stewart and Verne Norris were recently appointed to make a new precinct and reduce the size of precinct number five as it was too large according to law. They completed their work and the result is precinct number ten. The boundary lines of precincts number five and ten are described as follows:

No. 5.—Commencing in the center of Main and Eleventh Streets, in Rushville, Indiana, thence north along the center of Main Street and the Rushville and Dunreth turnpike to the north line of Rushville Township, thence west along the north line of Rushville Township to the northwest corner of said township, thence south on the west line of said township to the center of the Rushville and Indianapolis turnpike, thence in a southeast direction along the center of the Rushville and Indianapolis turnpike and Third Street in Rushville, Indiana, to the center of the Lake Erie & Western Railway Company, thence north along the center of said railway company to the center of the C. H. & D. Railway Co., thence in a westerly direction along the center of the C. H. & D. Railway to where the center line of Oliver Street projected would intersect said C. H. & D. Railway, thence north along the center line of Oliver Street to the center of Eleventh Street, thence east along the center of Eleventh Street to the place of beginning.

No. 10.—Commencing in the center of Morgan and Second Streets, in Rushville, Indiana, running thence north along the center of Morgan Street to the center of the C. H. & D. Railway Co., thence in a westerly direction along the center of the said C. H. & D. Railway Co. to the center of the Lake Erie & Western Railway Co., thence south along the center of the said Lake Erie & Western Railway in Rushville, Indiana, thence in an easterly direction along the center of Third Street to the intersection of Pearl Street, running north and south on the east side of Rushville Water Works, thence south on center of said Pearl Street to the center of Second Street, thence east along the center of Second Street to the place of beginning.

Diseased Teeth

"Diseased teeth" says a statement by the council, "keep the mouth foul and inflamed; they interfere seriously with digestion; they lower the vitality; they cause inflammation and infection of the glands of the neck, and they infect the food."

"Ninety-six per cent. of the school children have decayed teeth. The council believes that a foul mouth is a frequent cause of tuberculosis, pneumonia and other diseases. Neglect of the teeth in the early years of life frequently is the first cause of physical, mental and moral defects."

REFUSE TO WIRE FIGHT

Western Union Will Not Handle the Jeffries-Johnson Fight.

The local telegraph office has received word from I. N. Miller, superintendent of the district in which the Rushville office is located, to this effect:

"We will not furnish the Jeffries and Johnson fight on Monday, July Fourth, and no bulletins will be sent out. This is final."

When the local operator was asked if the reason of this message was because it was a legal holiday, he said that he did not know, and further knew no reason for such an action.

MAY MAKE FISH POND OF QUARRY

Probable That Old Hole Near Milroy
Covering an Acre of Ground,
Will be Made Useful.

WILL SUPPLY IT WITH FISH

It is highly probable that the old stone quarry on the farm of W. W. Barton near Milroy, where Reid & Thompson, contractors, have been getting their stone for the work on the pike in Anderson township, will be converted into a fish pond. The quarry is from twelve to fifteen feet deep and would make an ideal place for a fishery. The place is fed by springs so that fish could easily live in the water. The quarry takes up about an acre of ground. It is common rumor in Milroy that Mr. Barton will supply the pond with fish.

SOLVES THAT LETTED "B"

Greensburg News: Dr. E. G. Regennas of Hope, has a solution for the appearance of the letter "B" on the blades of the oats crop this year. He says that an oats blade bent over by the wind and then allowed to straighten up again will show lines resembling the letter "B" at the point where the blade was bent. Dr. Regennas says he has tried the experiment with bent blades and that the letter appears on each one bent. On blades that have not been bent he says the letter cannot be found.

The local police have received cards from Chief of Police Gorman of Richmond mailed to police departments throughout eastern Indiana and Western Ohio, bearing a description of a horse and phaeton hired in Richmond Monday by a stranger, and which has not been seen since. The outfit belongs to the L. N. Cox livery barn, and was obtained by an unknown man at about nine o'clock in the morning on the pretense of taking a short drive into the country. The matter was reported to the police Monday night.

The description on the card is that of a gray mare, and of a phaeton with black running gear and black trimmings. The man was of medium size and about twenty-three years old, and was clad in a striped brown suit.
